

Udall Foundation 2027 Education Programs Eligibility Criteria

Udall Undergraduate Scholarship Eligibility

- 1) Environmental Category:
 - a. U.S. Citizens, Nationals, and Lawful Permanent Residents;
 - b. Who are sophomore or junior-level students of accredited higher education institutions;
 - c. Who intend to pursue careers related to the environment; and
 - d. Who meet other appropriate eligibility requirements set by the Udall Foundation.
- 2) Native American and Alaska Native Categories:
 - a. U.S. Citizens, Nationals, and Lawful Permanent Residents;
 - b. Who are enrolled members of one or more Federally Recognized Indian Tribes that are included in the annual list of Indian Tribes published by the Secretary of the Interior pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 5131;
 - c. Who intend to pursue careers in health care or Tribal public policy; and
 - d. Who meet other appropriate eligibility requirements set by the Udall Foundation.

Native American Congressional Internship Eligibility

- 1) U.S. Citizens, Nationals, and Lawful Permanent Residents;
- 2) Who are enrolled members of one or more Federally Recognized Indian Tribes that are included in the annual list of Indian Tribes published by the Secretary of the Interior pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 5131;
- 3) Who are current students or recent graduates of accredited higher education institutions; and
- 4) Who meet other appropriate eligibility requirements set by the Udall Foundation.

Morris K. Udall and John S. McCain III Native American Graduate Fellowship in Tribal Policy Eligibility

- 1) U.S. Citizens, Nationals, and Lawful Permanent Residents;
- 2) Who are enrolled members of one or more Federally Recognized Indian Tribes that are included in the annual list of Indian Tribes published by the Secretary of the Interior pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 5131;
- 3) Who are current graduate students of accredited higher education institutions;
- 4) Who intend to pursue advanced degrees in health care; and
- 5) Who meet other appropriate eligibility requirements set by the Udall Foundation.